

SIGHTSEEING TOURS OF KATHMANDU VALLEY

TOUR # 01

Kathmandu Durbar Square : “DURBAR” literally means (Palace). Kathmandu durbar Square was once the palaces of Malla and Shah dynasty in early days. Durbar square surrounded with courtyard, temples, living goddess “Kumari”, museum and many more. Due to a major earthquake on 25th April 2015, several building in the square was collapsed. But It is still worth of a visit in the area where architectural, showcases of Newari craftsman over several centuries old structures are remain visible.

Swaymbhunath : For many people – it is also known as “monkey temples”, nestles north west of Kathmandu durbar on a hill top, with a beautiful bird eye view of Kathmandu city in south. Swaymbhu means Self Manifested or self sprung. According to the legend – once Kathmandu valley was a lake and Swaymbhu hill existed as an island. However, the written record on stone inscription is of 5th century. The shrine is one of the sacred site, worshipers by hindu, vajrayana Buddhist.

Patan : One of the oldest city among the three cities of valley. It was founded by the Kirat dynasty on third century B.C. The city is famous for its rich cultural heritage with its various kinds of arts and crafts. Historcially known as city of fine arts “Lalit”. A living museum of architecture can be seen in the alleys of this ancient town. The city is designed in the shape of the Dharma Chakra (Wheel of Righteousness).

Cost : US$43 per person (min 2 pax)

Covers :

- * one English speaking cultural guide
- * private vehicle without a/c with driver
- * all necessary permit fees

TOUR # 02

Pashupatinath : The holiest of Hindu Temple in sub continent. One of the UNESCO world heritage site among 7 others sites within Kathmandu valley, since 1979. Located by the bank of river Bagmati, spreading an area of 264 hector with 518 temples and monuments. Attracts thousands of pilgrimage across the country is dedicated to lord Pashupatinath which literally means the lord of animals.

Pashupatinath temple, Kathmandu

Boudhanath : It is one of the largest stupa in the world. Believe to built around 5th century. Approx 2kms away to the north from Pashupatinath temple (7 kms from city). The stupa is a popular site for followers of Buddhism and to the locals of Nepal. Pilgrims can be seen throughout the day circumambulating the structure (Note : Walk around in direction of clockwise of stupa).

Bhaktapur : A medieval city known with its various name (Bhadgaon, Khowpa) was once the capital of Nepal in the second half of 15th century during ‘Malla dynasty’. Located 8 kms from Kathmandu. The city is rich in its culture, temple, wood, metal and stone art work, pottery. It is still preserved for the tourist to explore. Nevertheless city too is famous for special curd “Ju Ju dhau” or King of Curd which is impossible to find out anywhere out of city.

Cost : US$50 per person (min 2 pax)

Covers :

- * one English speaking cultural guide
- * private vehicle with driver

* all necessary permit fees

CHITWAN ADVENTURE (2 NIGHT/3 DAYS)

Day 01 : Early morning drive approx 185 km+ south of Kathmandu to Chitwan. Nestled at the foothill of Himalaya. "Chitwan National Park" spreading of an area over 932 sq km . A recognized heritage site by UNESCO listed as protected reserve. One of the best wildlife-viewing national park in Asia. Home of famous Royal Bengal Tiger, one horned rhinos and many other animals and up to over 500 species of birds. A variety of programs includes elephant safari, boat ride, jungle walk, visit to park headquarter, local cultural dance, etc. Overnight resort.

Day 02 : Full day jungle excursions. Overnight resort.

Day 03 : After breakfast, leave the resort and drive back to Kathmandu.

Cost : US $ 184 per person (min. of 2 pax).

Single supplement $90/-

EXTRA Transportation :

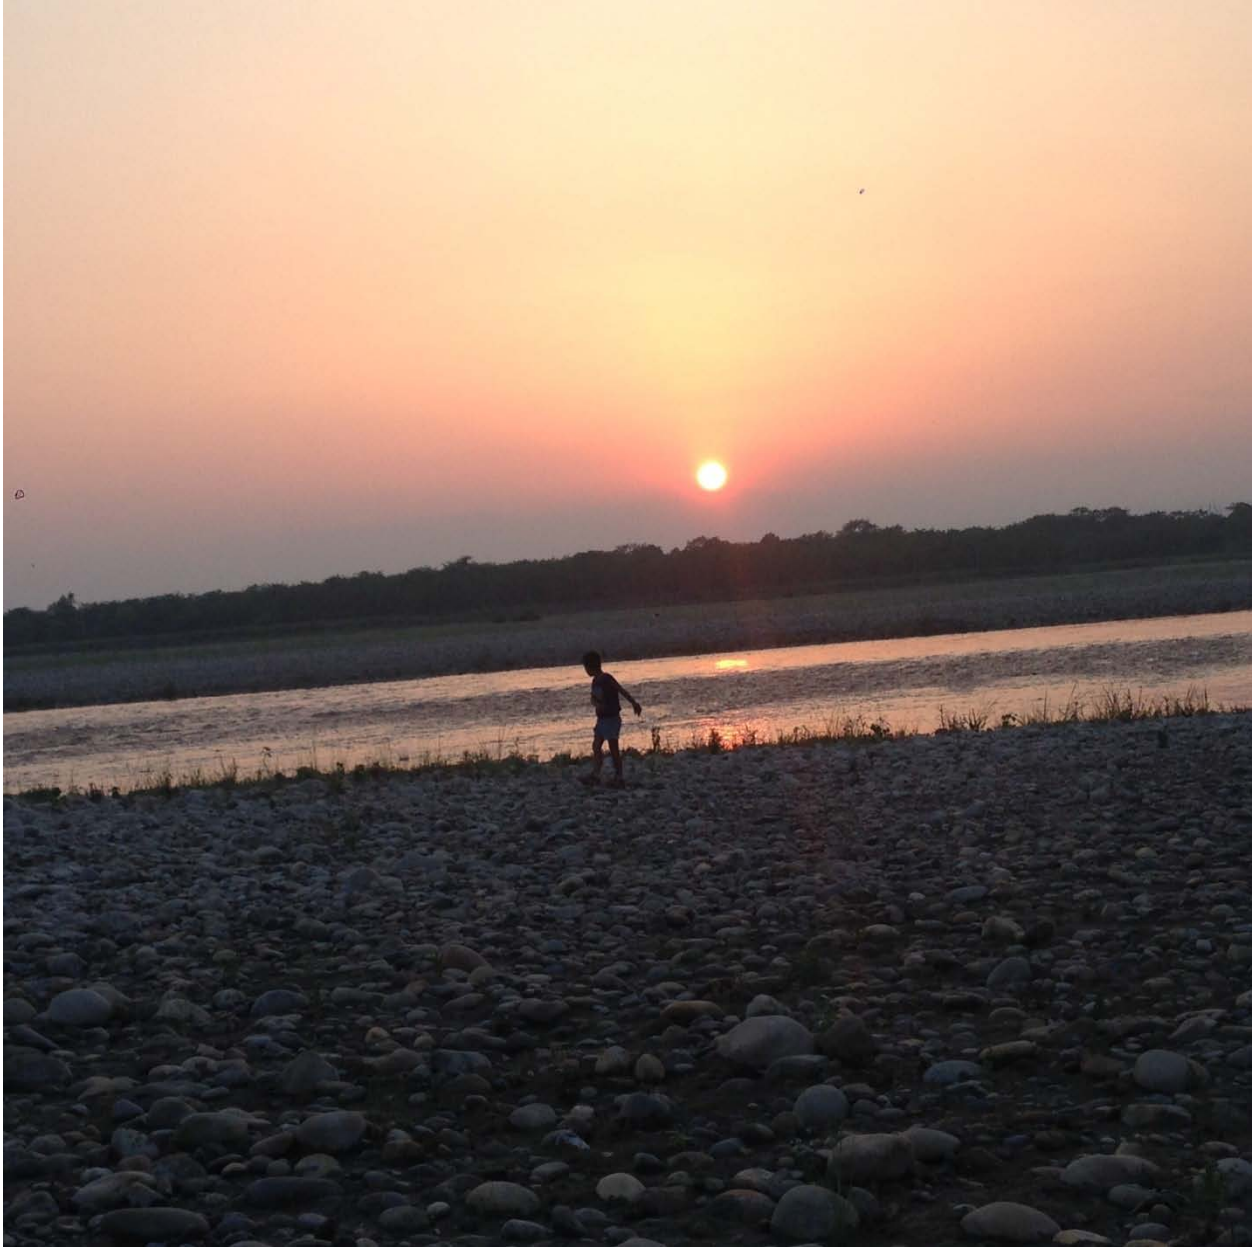

- a) By private vehicle without a/c (round trip) : US$75 per person (2 – 4 person), US$ 50 per person (5 pax and above).
- b) By tourist bus : US$ 50 per person.

COST INCLUDES:

- 2 night accommodation at Green Mansion or similar
- All meals (lunch from day 1 – till breakfast on day 03rd)
- National park permit and taxes
- Jungle activities
- Transportation as mention above

Elephant safari in Chitwan National Park, Chitwan

Sun set view from Sauraha, Chitwan National Park, Chitwan

POKHARA: THE CITY OF LAKE (2 NIGHT/3 DAYS)

Day 01: Drive or fly to Pokhara. "Pokhara" another busy tourist city next to Kathmandu, also known as city of lakes with spectacular landscape, scenery, full of adventure activities (zip liner, ultra flight, bungee jumping, pony ride, gliding, etc.). A laid back town with its own charm with beautiful snow capped mountain visible in about 18 kms aerial distance. Afternoon leisure walk along the lake side by the Phewa lake.

Day 02 : Early morning , witness the magnificent sun rise view over the mountain from Sarangkot. A. M. free for optional adventure sports enthusiastic. P.M. sightseeing tour of Devis fall (also known as Devill's, David or devi)an awesome water fall about 2 kms away from Pokhara city. Experience the traditional colorful local bazaar, its temples, Newar architecture, ethnically diverse traders and so on. Overnight at hotel.

Day 03 : Fly or drive back to Kathmandu.

Cost : US$115 per person (min 2 pax)

Single supplement - $40

Extra transport (Kathmandu – Pokhara – Kathmandu)

- a) By tourist bus - $50 per person
- b) By private vehicle - $75 per person (2 - 4 person), US$50 per person (5 + pax)
- c) By air - $255 per person

COST INCLUDES:

- 2 night accommodation at Hotel Kantipur or similar with breakfast
- Half day sightseeing with an English speaking guide and private vehicle
- Applicable entrance fee
- Sun rise tour to Sarangkot with private vehicle

Phewa lake and mountain range in Pokhara

POKHARA – LUMBINI – CHITWAN (6 NIGHT/7 DAYS)

Day 01 : Drive 200 km southwest on Prthivi highway to the city of Pokhara. "Pokhara" another busy tourist city next to Kathmandu, also known as city of lakes with spectacular landscape, scenery, full of adventure activities (zip liner, ultra flight, bungee jumping, pony ride, gliding, etc.). A laid back town with its own charm with beautiful snow capped mountain visible in about 18 kms aerial distance. Afternoon leisure walk along the lake side by the Phewa lake.

Day 02 : Early morning , witness the magnificent sun rise view over the mountain from Sarangkot. A. M. free for optional adventure sports enthusiastic. P.M. sightseeing tour of Devis fall (also known as Devill's, David or devi)an awesome water fall about 2 kms away from Pokhara city. Experience the traditional colorful local bazaar, its temples, Newar architecture, ethnically diverse traders and so on. Overnight at hotel.

Day 03 : After breakfast, board the waiting vehicle. Drive 273 kms towards the south west to one of the world's most important religious site "Lumbini". Mecca of every Buddhist. Located in town of Kapilvastu, district of Rupandhei near by the Indian border. Lumbini is the birth place of lord Buddha. Buddha was born to Queen Maya Devi and King Shododhan during 563 BC. Overnight at hotel.

Day 04 : One full day local sightseeing tour of historical/archeological site of Maya Devi Temple, Bodhi tree, Ashoka pillar and Tilaurakot. Overnight at hotel

Day 05: Leave the hotel after breakfast. Drive east on eastwest highway to Chitwan National Park. Nestled at the foothill of Himalaya. "Chitwan National Park" spreading of an area over 932 sq km a recognized heritage site by UNESCO listed as protected reserve. One of the best wildlife-viewing national park in Asia. Home of famous Royal Bengal Tiger, one horned rhinos and many other animals and up to over 500 species of birds. A variety of programs includes elephant safari, boat ride, jungle walk, visit to park headquarter, local cultural dance, etc. is available. Overnight resort.

Day 06 : Full day jungle excursions. Overnight resort.

Day 07 : After breakfast, drive back to Kathmandu. Approx 185 kms .

Cost : US$ 315 per person (minimum of 2 participants)

Single supplement US$175

COST INCLUDES:

- * hotel Kantipur or similar with breakfast in Pokhara
- * Mirage Inn or similar on MAP basis in Chitwan
- * Green mansion or similar (all meals + activities) in Chitwan
- * necessary permit, entrance fee, etc.
- * ground handling in a private vehicle without a/c

COST EXCLUDES:

- * personal expenses. e.g. drinking water, alcoholic and non alcoholic beverages, tips, etc.
- * any forms of insurance against any nature
- * any extra expenses incurred due to the reason beyond our control

Mayadevi temple, Lumbini